I'm a creature of contradictions—An athletic bookworm, a night owl who's an early riser, and an active guy who loves to be lazy on Sunday mornings.

I'm always interested in learning new things whether it's history, politics, or the guitar. (I started teaching myself piano last year and am loving the challenge so far.)

I can also cook a mean baked tilapia or spaghetti dinner. Let me know if you're interested or just give me some tips on my red sauce. 😉
